DETAILED ACTION

Receipt is acknowledged of a reply to the previous Office Action, filed July 17, 2008. Claims 1-7, 9, 10, 12, 14-23, 38 and 40-62 are pending; claims 1-7, 9, 10, 12, 14, 38 and 40-62 are under consideration in the instant application. Any rejection of record in the previous Office Action, mailed March 20, 2008 that is not addressed in this action has been withdrawn.

Because this Office Action only maintains rejections set forth in the previous Office Action and/or sets forth new rejections that are necessitated by amendment, this Office Action is made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 7, 9, 38, 40, 41, 51 and 59 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Xue et al.

Applicants claim an industrial, brewery, or baker's yeast strain with the fil2 phenotype, including a S. cerevisiae strain, made by the process in claim 1. These are product-by process claims. The "fil2 phenotype" is a yeast strain that has a deleted GPR1 gene (paragraph 298 of the specification). According to the specification, the deletion of GPR1 permits obtaining a high level of thermoresistance.

Xue et al (IDS ref. 49, especially p. 1996) teaches a S. cerevisiae strain with a deletion in the GPR1 gene. S. cerevisiae is an industrial yeast used in brewing and baking.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-6, 42-50, 60 and 61 are allowable.

Claims 10, 12, 14, 52-59 and 62 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
